Therefore, overy voter should ask himself, when he goes to make up his ticket, first, is the man I will cast my vote for the most competent to fill the office he asks for. Second, has he so conducted his canvass that I, judging therefrom, would be willing for him to instruct my son or my neighbor's family? Would his morals be good for the rising generation? Would his past and likely future conduct be for the honor of this State and her people? If you can answer these questions in the affirmative, vote for him.

Read what the Johnston Monitor says of the dispensary as a prohibition movement or even a step toward prohibition It is interesting and instructive.

The State campaign will close as follows: Lexington, Friday; Columbia, Saturday. Monday will be a rest day and the ballots will be silently dropped in the boxes Tuesday from SA. M. to 4 P. M. By ten o'clock that night the results will be oretty well known in Columbia.

Two good signs are to be seen these days. The people are saying little about That shows they are going to be guided by reason. Another sign is that the demand for home-made flour is increasing. Both these tendencies indicate that the people are getting in their right minds.

The government of Hawaii was formally transferred to the United States at high noon, August 12th, with most im-pressive ceremonies. The flags of Ha-waii were pulled down and the stars and wan were putted down and the stars and stripes run up on every government building. At the firing of the national salute the flagship's band struck up the Star Spangled Banner and amidst cheers from thousands the annexation procla-mation was read by Minister Sewall. A ball at the executive building at which 2,000 guests were present was the culmination of the feativities.

The President does not care to send troops to Havana until October 1, because of the sickly season. He has, however, arranged to put into the capital of Cuba a strong force on very short notice if conditions demand. The American com-missioners will judge of the demand and Gen. Lee will be ready to meet it. This is what has come of the conferences during the past few days. Gen. Lee has informed the President that he is confident he can camp his men on the high hills just outside Havana with very little risk from yellow fever or climatic dan-gers, even if they go now.
